Last Meeting - April 8th

Program: Melissa Aaron
 Rotarian Larry Kenyon introduced his boss, Melissa Aaron, director of the Bill E. Ireland Youth Development Center. A native of Savannah, Mrs. Aaron has 24 years of experience with the juvenile justice system. She came to Milledgeville from Macon and is a leadership institute graduate and a member of the Women's Leadership Forum at Georgia College & State University.

President Arthur Gunn, Melissa Aaron and Rotarian Larry Kenyon

She stressed that education is a key factor in being successful. As director at YDC she sees young men from all over the state with different challenges. They need to see role models, not of athletes they see on television, but members of this community who can encourage them to "be all they can be." She is impressed with the service projects of the Rotary club.

Rotarian of the day: Tommy Jefferson

Why is membership important?

Imagine if our club were to lose 10 percent of its members. How would that affect our service program? What projects might not get finished? Which ones might never have been started? Now consider what our club could accomplish with 10 percent or five percent or even two percent more members. Think about the professional expertise you could add to your club's overall profile simply by filling all open classifications. Think about the new ideas and new club service projects that could be initiated. Think about the additional people to take on leadership and committee roles. Every new Rotarian brings a range of personal and professional resources and knowledge that can greatly strengthen our club's ability to serve throughout the community and the world.

Do you know a friend or colleague who has all the qualities of a good Rotarian? Rotarians are adults of good character and good business or professional reputation, who hold or have held an executive position with discretionary authority in any worthy and recognized business or profession. If you know someone suited to Rotary, then consider referring them for membership.
