Last Meeting - March 4th

Program: Knight Foundation

Rotarian Tommy Jefferson, chairman of the local area Knight Foundation board, spoke to the club about the focus of the Knight Foundation. The Knight Foundation was formed within the 26 communities in which Knight Ridder owned newspapers. The private foundation was formed in 1950 separate from Knight Ridder and has grown to over 1.8 billion dollars in assets. The local board of the foundation tries to set priorities of all community needs and likes to stay proactive not reactive to those needs. This summer a new program will start called the Milledgeville Carrera Model Program. This program will include 15 girls and 15 boys entering in the 6th grade and will continue through the 12th grade. The focus of this program is to fight teen pregnancy in our community.
